Updated progress report

The Société des alcools du Québec would like to inform you that we are in the process of settling certain issues related to the information contained in the form related to the launch of our Web catalogue.

As a result, we foresee a delay of three to four weeks. We are confident that the Web catalogue will be online by the end of October.

We will be airing a Webcast in order to inform you of the launch of the Web catalogue and how to use it. We will send you more detailed information concerning this Webcast soon.
